Restaurant/Bar-Almancil

This commercial property has a great location in the centre of Almancil and has a licence to be used as a restaurant.

The space could also be used as a bar or nightclub. With the current layout there is for 30 people seated, but it is possible to modernize the property and achieve greater capacity. The property has a bar at the entrance, a good sized kitchen with all services installed, a large storage room and bathrooms for clients and employees. A good investment due to the visibility of the location and size of the property.
